What Personal Data We Collect and Why We Collect It

Comments

When visitors leave comments on the site, we collect the data shown in the comments form, as well as the visitor's IP address and browser user agent string to help with spam detection.

An anonymized string created from your email address (also called a hash) may be provided to the Gravatar service to determine if you are using it. The Gravatar service privacy policy is available here: <https://automattic.com/privacy/>.

After approval of your comment, your profile picture may be visible to the public in the context of your comment.

Media Uploads

If you upload images to the website, you should avoid uploading images with embedded location data (EXIF GPS) included. Visitors may be able to download and extract location data from images on the site.

Contact Forms and Contest Entries

If you use a contact form or enter a contest through a form, the information you provide will be used to respond to your inquiry or administer contest participation.

This information may be shared internally with our management team for those purposes.

Cookies

If you leave a comment, you may opt in to saving your name, email address, and website in cookies for convenience. These cookies last for one year.

If you visit our login page, we may set a temporary cookie to determine if your browser accepts cookies. This cookie contains no personal data and is discarded when you close your browser.

When you log in, we set cookies to save your login information and display preferences. Login cookies last two days, and screen options cookies last one year.

If you select “Remember Me,” your login will persist for two weeks. Logging out removes login cookies.

If you edit or publish an article, an additional cookie may be saved indicating the post ID. It expires after one day.

Embedded Content from Other Websites

Articles on this site may include embedded content (videos, images, articles, etc.). Embedded content behaves as if you visited the other website directly.

These third-party websites may collect data about you, use cookies, embed tracking, and monitor your interaction with embedded content.

Analytics and Security Monitoring

We may collect location, IP address, and related information to help confirm legitimate human traffic and protect our website from bots, abuse, and electronic harm.

Who We Share Your Data With

Information submitted through forms may contain personal data. You may choose to opt out of sponsor follow-up communications when available.

We do not sell personal information. Data is only shared as necessary to operate site services, contests, or required legal compliance.

How Long We Retain Your Data

If you leave a comment, the comment and its metadata may be retained indefinitely to recognize and approve follow-up comments.

For registered users (if any), we store personal information provided in user profiles. Users may view, edit, or delete their information at any time (except usernames). Website administrators may also access and edit that information.

What Rights You Have Over Your Data

If you have an account or have left comments, you may request an exported file of the personal data we hold about you.

You may also request that we erase personal data we hold, except data we must retain for administrative, legal, or security purposes.

Where We Send Your Data

Visitor comments may be checked through an automated spam detection service.
